

Cheyenne D. Boyd

Ms. Boyd, MSW, LSW, earned a bachelor of arts degree in social work and then began her career at Summit County Children Services in 1997 as a protective services caseworker at the West Akron district office. In 2000 she went back to the University of Akron, wherein 2004 she earned her master's degree in social work. Ms. Boyd began working in the Independent Living Unit in October of 2002. In 2009 she became the Emancipation Resource Specialist, a position created based on the influx of former foster youth coming back to the agency needing assistance. Ms. Boyd has remained in that position. She has assisted in the development and implementation of many programs and training for youth and adults surrounding transitioning youth into adulthood.

Ms. Boyd is a life-long Summit County resident, having graduated from Central-Hower High School. She is very committed to youth moving towards adulthood having the necessary skills to navigate this world. She brings strong leadership skills to her current position, as well as a commitment to best practices, and partnering with the families she serves.