

Christine Kohls

Mrs. Kohls is the founding principal of Raising Results LLC, a full-service nonprofit consulting firm. She is a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE) and Association of Fundraising Professionals Master Trainer whose 20 years of experience includes leadership positions in healthcare, higher education, social service, and arts and culture organizations. Most recently, Christine secured funds for capital improvements at two local universities and served as the project manager from the design phase through grand openings. She developed comprehensive fundraising plans, messaging, and branding for Cleveland-area nonprofits; refreshed an eight-year-old breakfast fundraiser into a roving cocktail party at the Cleveland Museum of Art that nearly doubled the event's net revenue and attracted 700 supporters; and has helped her clients transform their fundraising results. A seasoned foundation, corporate and government relations officer, Christine's portfolio includes many federal and state agencies, as well as foundations local to northeast Ohio and beyond. In a civic leadership capacity, Christine serves on the board of Business Volunteers Unlimited and volunteers each year with VeloSano.
